Zachary Gilliam

Prof. Mike Colbert

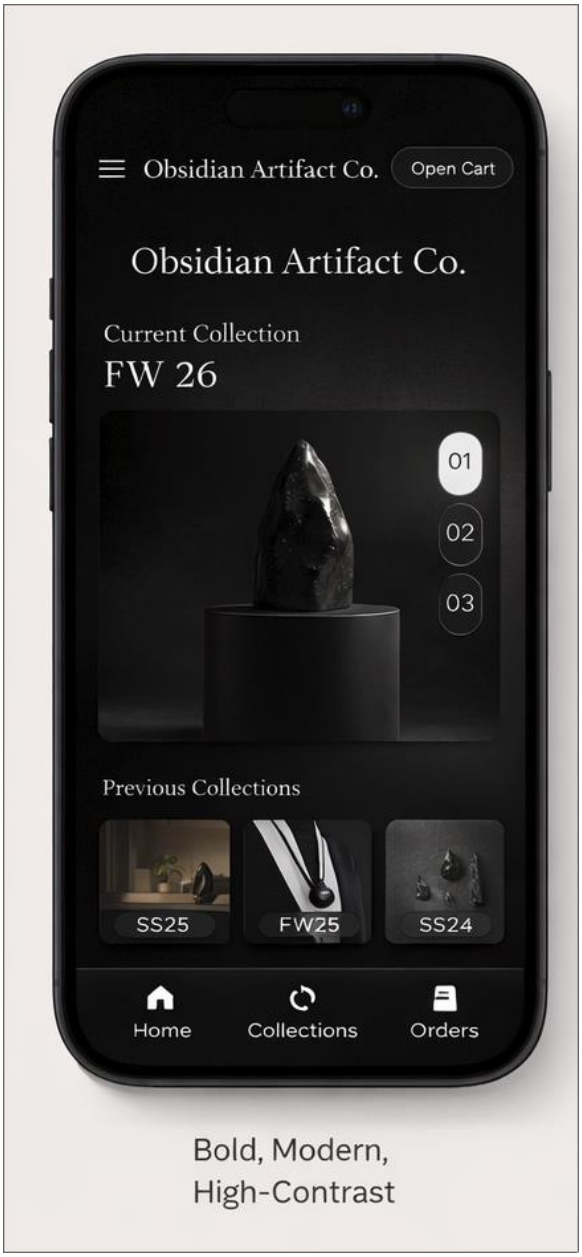
BAIS:3300

02/25/2026

Option A

This direction maximizes clarity and cognitive ease, making it strongest for first-impression brand comprehension and fast confidence formation. It reduces friction for mobile users and supports your short-session objective well. The risk is that it may feel slightly restrained emotionally—users may understand the brand quickly but not feel compelled to explore deeply. Its strength is trust and precision; its weakness is potential under-stimulation for deeper engagement.

Option B



This approach increases emotional impact and visual memorability, which may improve curiosity and deeper exploration behavior. It is strong for stopping scroll-driven traffic and reinforcing premium positioning. However, the higher contrast and visual intensity may slightly increase cognitive load for short-session evaluators, and if not carefully balanced, it could feel performative rather than refined. Its strength is emotional pull; its weakness is potential over-amplification.

Option C

This direction softens the premium tone while maintaining credibility, potentially reducing intimidation for gift buyers and first-time visitors. It feels accessible and warm, which can lower hesitation. The tradeoff is that it may slightly dilute the stark, high-craft aesthetic that defines the brand's distinctiveness. Its strength is approachability and comfort; its weakness is reduced edge and differentiation.

Chosen Option – Option 1

Prompt Below:

YOU ARE DESIGNING A MOBILE-FIRST ECOMMERCE HOMEPAGE FOR A PREMIUM BRAND CALLED OBSIDIAN ARTIFACT CO.

THIS IS NOT GENERIC ECOMMERCE.
THE GOAL IS TO COMMUNICATE BRAND MEANING AND CRAFTSMANSHIP QUICKLY AND CLEARLY.

CONTEXT & CONSTRAINTS

PRIMARY USER:
DESIGN-CONSCIOUS BRAND EVALUATOR (24–45). THEY CARE ABOUT AESTHETIC, STORY, CREDIBILITY, AND MAKING A LOW-REGRET PREMIUM PURCHASE DECISION.

SESSION BEHAVIOR:

- OFTEN MOBILE
- OFTEN FROM SOCIAL MEDIA
- OFTEN UNDER 2 MINUTES
- LOW PATIENCE
- COMPARING TABS

SUCCESS MEANS:

- IMMEDIATE CLARITY OF WHAT THE BRAND IS
- TRUST IN CRAFTSMANSHIP
- CONFIDENCE IN WHETHER IT'S "WORTH IT"
- ENCOURAGEMENT OF DEEPER EXPLORATION — BUT NEVER FORCED

Do NOT:

- Overdesign
- Add unnecessary motion
- Add clutter
- Introduce new navigation
- Change IA

Layout Requirements (Do Not Modify)

Mobile viewport only.

Top Navigation:

- Left: hamburger icon
- Center: “Obsidian Artifact Co.”
- Right: pill-shaped “Open Cart” button

Hero Section:

- Brand name headline
- Short 1–2 line description
- “Current Collection” label
- Collection name (e.g., FW 26)
- Large rounded image card
- Vertical circular selector buttons (01, 02, 03) on right side of hero image

Below Hero:

- “Previous Collections” section
- Horizontal scroll of 3 small image cards
- Each has a subtle overlay label (SS25, FW25, SS24)

Bottom Navigation (fixed):

- Home (active)
- Collections

- Orders

Do NOT add additional sections.

Visual Direction: Clean, Minimal, Productivity-Focused

Design Principles

- Clarity > decoration
- Restraint > drama
- Precision > personality overload
- Quiet luxury
- High cognitive ease
- Visual hierarchy must be immediately legible in <2 seconds

Color System

Background: soft off-white (#F7F7F5)
Primary text: near-black (#111111)
Secondary text: charcoal gray (#444444)
Card background: true white
Accent: graphite (#2B2B2B)
No bright colors. No gradients. No visual noise.

Hero image should carry emotional weight.

Typography

Headlines:

- Elegant serif (medium weight)

- Slight tracking
- Spacious line height

Body/UI:

- Clean modern sans-serif
- Slightly lighter weight
- High legibility at small sizes

Hierarchy:

- Brand name largest
- Collection name secondary
- Labels subtle and small
- Never bold everything

Spacing System

Use generous whitespace.

- 24px–32px vertical rhythm
- 16px horizontal padding
- Large breathing room around hero card
- Avoid dense stacking

The page should feel calm.

Component Styling

Cards:

- 12px rounded corners
- Extremely subtle shadow (low blur, low opacity)

Selector buttons:

- Circular
- Outlined
- Active state = filled graphite background, white number
- Inactive = subtle outline

Bottom navigation:

- Minimal icons
- Light labels
- Active state darker, others subdued

Open Cart button:

- Soft pill
- Light background
- Thin border
- No heavy CTA energy

Motion & Interaction

- Fade transitions only
- 150–200ms max
- No parallax
- No bounce
- No scaling hero animations
- Interactions should feel immediate and frictionless

Behavioral UX Goals (Important)

Design must:

1. Allow immediate understanding of:
    a. What this brand is
    b. What makes it premium

    c. What collection is current
2. Avoid overwhelming users with choice
3. Encourage deeper browsing without pushing
4. Make the experience feel confident, not trendy
5. Avoid looking like generic Shopify

Emotional Tone

- Intentional
- Crafted
- Calm
- Credible
- Considered

Never:

- Flashy
- Startup-y
- Loud
- Playful
- Corporate

Output Requirements

Generate:

- A mobile homepage layout
- Styled with modern CSS or Tailwind
- Clean semantic HTML structure
- No backend logic
- Placeholder images allowed
- Accessible contrast ratios

Prioritize:

- Readability
- Visual balance
- Calm elegance

The final result should feel like a premium editorial product brand, optimized for fast brand comprehension and confident decision formation.